MARYLAND GAZETTE,

Containing the lateſt Advices foreign and domeſtic.

THURSDAY, July 22, 1762.

FROM A LATE PUBLIC PAPER.

AN extraordinary Inſtance of Avarice and Peculation has lately been diſcovered in France. Monſ. Foſcue, one of the Farmers General of the Province of Languedoc, who had amaſſed a conſiderable Wealth by grinding the Faces of the Poor within his Province, and every other Means, however low, baſe, or cruel, by which he rendered himſelf univerſally hated, was one Day ordered by the Government to raiſe a conſiderable Sum: Upon which, as an Excuſe for not complying with the Demand, he pleaded extreme Poverty; but fearing leſt ſome of the Inhabitants of Languedoc ſhould give Information to the contrary, and his Houſe ſhould be ſearched, he reſolved on hiding his Treaſure in ſuch a manner, as to eſcape the moſt ſtrict Examination. He dug a kind of a Cave in his Wine Cellar, which he made ſo large and deep, that he uſed to go down to it with a Ladder; at the Entrance was a Door with a Spring Lock on it, which on ſhutting would faſten of itſelf. Very lately Monſ. Foſcue was miſſing; diligent Search was made after him in every Place; the Ponds were drawn, and every Method, which human Imagination could ſuggeſt, was taken for finding him, but all in vain. In a ſhort Time after his Houſe was ſold, and the Purchaſer beginning either to rebuild it, or make ſome Alterations in it, the Workmen diſcovered a Door in the Cellar, with a Key in the Lock, which he ordered to be opened, and on going down they found Monſ. Foſcue lying dead on the Ground, with a Candleſtick near him, but no Candle in it, which he had eat; and on ſearching farther, they found the vaſt Wealth that he had amaſſed. It is ſuppoſed that when Monſ. Foſcue went into his Cave, the Door by ſome Accident ſhut after him, and being out of the Call of any Perſon, he periſhed for want of Food. He had gnawed the Fleſh off both his Arms, as is ſuppoſed for Subſiſtence. [Thus did this Miſer Die miſerable, in a Pit of his own digging, in the midſt of his Treaſure, to the Scandal of himſelf, and the Prejudice of the State.]

CHARLES-TOWN, South-Carolina, June 26.

The ſerious Attention that has been given to Indian Affairs; the ſcrupulous Adherence to the moſt material and preliminary Article of the Treaty with the Cherokees, as far as this Government could interpoſe; and the Precaution taken to ſtation Rangers on the Frontiers, have, in all Probability, convinced thoſe Indians, that we were in Earneſt to be at Peace, yet reſolute and upon our Guard; and we may once again congratulate the Public upon the promiſing Aſpect which Matters now wear in that Quarter.—About a Month ſince, the Lower Towns Cherokees gave the ſtrongeſt Evidence they poſſibly could of their ſincere Deſire to end all Differences with us, by a voluntary unſolicited Offer to go over the Hills, to collect and bring down all the white and Negro Priſoners then in the Nation, and to deliver them up to Captain Mackintoſh, at Fort Prince-George; in Expectation that they ſhould immediately after obtain a Trade from hence, and their Priſoners, which Captain Mackintoſh had Authority to promiſe. Tiſtowih, of Keehowee, the Old or Good Warrior of Eſtatowih (Father to Serowih, commonly called the Young Warrior) with about 20 others of the Lower Towns, accordingly ſet out on that Buſineſs the 28th of May, declaring that they would not return without all the Priſoners. On the 12th Inſtant they returned with ſeventeen, thirteen Whites, and four Blacks, which they ſay are all, except a Negro Wench that got away from them at Tilliquoh, and two white Lads at New Hywaſſih, whither they had not Time or Proviſions to go (for they were it ſeems obliged to go from Town to Town for them, the Over-Hills People never having given themſelves the Trouble to collect them together at Chotih, as they repeatedly promiſed) but even theſe they had ſent for, and likewiſe engaged to deliver up in a few Days. On the 13th the Young Warrior of Eſtatowih likewiſe delivered up a Dutch Woman that was his Priſoner, according to Promiſe, whenever the others ſhould be brought in. One Soldier and two Women, at New Hywaſſih, were delivered up a little while before, to ſome Virginia Traders. Capt. Mackintoſh, with the Priſoners and Indians, was to ſet out the 15th for Ninety-ſix, where they were expected the 20th; and there the Indians intend to hunt till they hear from Charles-Town.——The natural Inference to be drawn from our getting the Priſoners in the Way we have, is, that the Wants of Indians are the beſt Pledges for their Performance of any Covenant. Had the Lower Towns been equally well ſupplied with the Upper, they never would have made it their Buſineſs to collect and deliver the Priſoners. If this Reaſoning is juſt, how neceſſary is it for the ſeveral Provinces to act in Concert in Indian Matters, in order to avail themſelves, upon other Occaſions, of the Means which has produced ſuch good Effects on this? If a partial Reſtraint of the Trade from one Province could thus operate, would not a general Reſtraint in all, check the Inſolence, or ſtop the Outrages of Savages, almoſt as ſoon as the March of Armies? and ſave both the Crown and the Province an enormous Expence, &c. &c.

Two Talks and a String of white Beads are brought down from the Lower Towns. One of the Talks, we hear, is from Tiſtowih, of Keehowih, and dated the 13th Inſtant; the other from ſaid Tiſtowih, the Old and the Young Warrior of Eſtatowih, and the Wolf of Keehowee, and dated the 14th; and both as favourable as we can wiſh. In them, their Diſtreſs, for want of Ammunition and Proviſions, is ſtrongly painted: They beg moſt earneſtly for a Trade, and alſo for the ſpeedy Reſtoration of the Priſoners we have here; ſay, that when theſe are obtained, no one ſhall dare to give a bad Talk in the Nation; and expreſs a great Deſire to ſee the Governor, if his Excellency will be pleaſed to permit them to come to Charles-Town.—Meaſures are accordingly taking, to ſend up the Cherokee Priſoners from this Town to Ninety-ſix, as ſoon as poſſible, of which Notice is already ſent to the Indians; and a Trade is to be forthwith opened with them, not by private Perſons, but by this Government, agreeable to a late Act of Aſſembly, under the Direction of five Gentlemen, whoſe Names alone are ſufficient to give us an Idea of the Manner in which it will be carried on. The preſent Directors (named in the Act) are Gabriel Manigault, Thomas Lamboll, John Savage, Thomas Shubrick, and Thomas Smith (of Broad-ſtreet) Eſquires.

We are well informed, that Captain Alleck's Account of the Lower Creek Indians not having made Peace with the Spaniards, but projected an Expedition againſt Fort Mooſa, near St. Auguſtine, which was to have been carried into Execution about the 23d ult. was true; but that it was ſuſpended, by the artful Management of the Young Lieutenant of the Cowetas (a moſt zealous Adherent to the French) who arrived in his Nation from the Cherokees juſt as it was on the Point of taking Place, and having heard of the Rupture between Great-Britain and Spain, took that Opportunity, in a public Talk, to tell them, that "if we were at War "with the Spaniards, we ſhould certainly ſoon take St. Au"guſtine; that if this Event ſhould happen, and we ſhould "alſo conquer Louiſiana, we would then no longer heſitate "to demand Satisfaction for the Murders committed in the "Creek Nation, who, having no Friends left on either Side, "would be obliged to ſubmit to all our Demands, or to have "the numerous Nation of Chactahs ſet upon to extirpate "them:" In fine, he expoſtulated much with them, upon the Expediency of their making a Peace with the Spaniards, and the Spaniſh and French Indians, and offered to go himſelf to negociate it at St. Auguſtine, whither he accordingly went. Though this Talk ſtaggered our Friends a good deal, and ſtrengthened the French Party, yet we have ſome Reaſon to believe, that their Expedition againſt the Spaniards is ſuſpended only till their grand Buſk is over. The Confirmation of Alleck's Intelligence is not come through the Channel of Auguſta, or white Men, whoſe Veracity is queſtionable, but from conſiderable Indians themſelves.

From the Creek Nation, we have a certain Account of the Arrival of ſome Troops from France at New-Orleans, with a Ship of War and two Store Ships (probably thoſe that eſcaped Capt. Arburthnot on the 3d of March laſt.) Our Advices add, that theſe were the only Ships that had arrived there directly from France for five Years paſt; that a Boat Load of the Goods brought in ſaid Store Ships was on its Way to the Albahma Fort, the Whole whereof was promiſed to be diſtributed amongſt the Creek Indians; and that the Creeks had received an Invitation from the Spaniards to go to Penſacola, to receive Preſents from them likewiſe.

A Spaniſh Snow, loaded with Salt, is juſt come in, which, with a Brigantine, was cut out of a Harbour in the Bay of Campeachy, in the Night of the 25th of May laſt, from under the Guns of a Fort, by the Privateer Sloop Hope of Jamaica, of 12 Carriage and 16 Swivel Guns, and 100 Men, commanded by Capt. John Stuart; which ſaid Privateer, a few Days before, ſurpriſed and plundered a Town in the ſaid Bay, where they got conſiderable Booty.

BASSETERRE, in ST. CHRISTOPHERS, June 9.

By the Snow Betſey, Capt. Michie, that arrived from Serelon in 4 Weeks, we have Advice that the Privateer Brig belonging to Martinico, called the Thamas Koulican, commanded by Capt. Tangee, had taken at the Iſland of Delos, about the Middle of April, the Ships following, belonging to England, viz. the Thetis, Capt. Peirce; Venus, Capt. Hamilton; Snapper, Capt. Breathwate; Sally, Captain M'Gill; Duke, Capt. Hendell; Catharine, Capt. Kenny; Kitty, Capt. Thornborough; Prince George, Capt. Peck; Anna Maria, Capt. How; Fanny, Capt. Waterman. The above Ships had on board about 660 Slaves. And about the ſame Time a French Frigate took, at Cape Mount, five Engliſh Ships, their Names unknown, and alſo the Frigate's Name.

June 16. Upon the 11th Inſt. his Majeſty's Ship Amazon, Baſil Keith, Eſq; Commander, arrived in the Road of Baſſeterre, and brought the Brigantine Sainte Claire, Francis Fonfrede, Maſter, bound to St. Domingo from Bourdeaux, and loaded with Wine, Flour, Soap, Butter, Hams, and dry Goods.

BOSTON, July 1.

We hear from Rhode-Iſland, That on Friday laſt as a Number of Perſons were mowing Graſs in the Town of Portſmouth on that Iſland, a Thunder Shower came up, whereupon they betook themſelves to a Tree for Shelter, one of the Men hung his Schythe on a Limb over his Head, when a Stream of Lightning came down the Tree, took its Courſe along the Blade of the Scythe, and from thence went off the Point on the Head of one Mr. Fiſh, and a Lad named Murphy, and killed them both inſtantaneouſly. The other Perſons that ſtood under the Tree received no Hurt. We hope ſome Obſervations on this Occurrence, and on the Nature and Utility of Electrical Points, will be made by ſome Gentlemen.

As it is a very common Practice in Thunder-Guſts for Perſons in the Country to take Shelter under a Tree, the publiſhing the following at this Seaſon may not be unſerviceable:——Extract from Mr. B. FRANKLIN's Letters on Electricity.

——'As electrical Clouds (ſays he) paſs over the Country, 'high Hills and high Trees, lofty Towers, Spires, Maſts of 'Ships, Chimneys, &c. as ſo many Prominences, draw the 'electrical Fire, and the whole Cloud diſcharges there; 'dangerous it is to take Shelter under a Tree during a Thun'der-Guſt; it has been fatal to many, both Men and 'Beaſts. It is ſafer to be in the open Field for another 'Reaſon: When the Cloaths are wet, if a Flaſh in its Way 'to the Ground ſhould ſtrike your Head, it would run in the 'Water over the Surface of your Body, whereas if your 'Cloaths are dry, it would go through your Body. Hence a 'wet Rat cannot be killed by the exploding electrical Bottle, 'when a dry Rat may."——

We hear from New-London, that on Thurſday ſen'night died there, Mr. Ebenezer Bolles of that Town, Trader, eſteemed a very honeſt and hoſpitable Man. He has left one Child, a Daughter of about 17 Years of Age; and an Eſtate of about 5000 l. lawful Money.—The Occaſion of his Death was as follows;—a few Days before he had been cutting ſome Vines or Buſhes which were of a noxious Quality, whereby he was poiſoned, and his Body ſwelled to a great Degree; but being of the Sect, called by the Name of Rogerines, who forbid the Uſe of Means in Sickneſs, he would neither allow a Phyſician to be near him, or the moſt ſimple Medicine adminiſtred: Juſt before he departed this Life, when in great Pain, he ſeemed deſirous of ſome Help, but the Brethren and Siſters of the ſame Profeſſion, would not allow it, leſt he ſhould deny his Faith.

July 5. This Morning Captain Stanton arrived here in 37 Days from Liſbon, and informs that the Portugueſe had declared a Defenſive War againſt all the Spaniards they ſhould find in the Territories of Portugal.

We have Advice that Captain Ayres, in a Snow belonging to this Place, is arrived at London in a ſhort Paſſage from South-Carolina.

NEWPORT, Rhode-Iſland, June 22.

Liſt of Hoſtages in Port-au-Prince, on the Iſland of Hiſpaniola, the Firſt of June, 1762.

Thomas Lewis, a Hoſtage for the Ranſom of the Sloop Caſhier, Chriſtopher Wood Maſter, from Jamaica; ranſomed for 500 l. a Priſoner three Years and an Half.

Oſborn Freſtap,—Schooner Nancy, from Jamaica, owned by Richard Simmons, in Kingſton, for 1100 Piſtoles, nine Months.

John Stuart,—Sloop John and James, belonging to New-York, for 3000 Dollars, eight Months.

Joſeph Hill,——Ship Benning, Thomas Bradford Maſter, owned by Paul March, and Company, of Portſmouth, in Piſcataqua, for 3000 Dollars, five Months.

At the particular Requeſt of ſome of the above unhappy Sufferers, we have inſerted this Liſt: And we hope this public Method will have ſome good Effect towards redeeming theſe unfortunate People from a cruel Captivity, and reſtore them to the Liberty which they voluntarily ſacrificed for the Intereſt of their Owners.

NEW-YORK, July 8.

Laſt Tueſday arrived here the Brig Boon, Captain Munds, in 6 Days from South-Carolina, and on his Paſſage from thence ſpoke with a Veſſel from Jamaica, who informed him, that a few Days before ſhe took a ſmall Veſſel from the Havannah, and that about five Leagues from the Havannah, he heard a heavy firing, but as it is ſurrounded by Mountains, he could not diſcern any Ships, but ſuppoſed that it was the Engliſh beſieging it;—whom GOD grant Succeſs to in all their Undertakings.

Yeſterday between 3 and 4 o'Clock in the Afternoon, came up a violent Guſt of Wind and Rain, accompanied with uncommon Thunder and Lightning, during which the Steeple of Trinity Church, in this City, was ſtruck with the Lightning, and took Fire, but was, by the timely and uſual Vigilance of the Inhabitants, happily extinguiſhed, with little Damage.—The Steeple was under Repair, and one of the Gentlemen who had the Care of it, being below, was (together with two of his Lads) ſtruck down, but received no Hurt, otherwiſe than remaining feeble for a ſhort Space. Mr. Calloe's Houſe in Wall-ſtreet, was ſtruck much about the ſame Time, but ſuſtained little or no Damage, unleſs it be the ſhivering of a Settee, &c. It is ſaid that the Maſt of a Boat in the Harbour was ſhivered by the Lightning, and ſeveral Creatures in the Hold killed, but no Perſon hurt. We alſo learn from Buſhwyke, on Long-Iſland, that a Barn was burnt there by the Lightning; it is feared that we ſhall receive ſimilar Accounts from the adjacent Parts.

The laſt Diviſion of the Garriſons of Fort Detroit and Michillimakinack (brought to this Town laſt Year by Major Rogers) embarked Yeſterday for Boſton, in order to join the Men of War that convoy the Maſt Ships to England, from whence they are to be tranſported to France according to Capitulation.

July 12. Thurſday Evening a Fire broke out at the Printing-Office on the New-Dock, which did very conſiderable Damage to that, and the Houſe adjoining, e'er the Violence of the Flames could poſſibly be abated.—Notwithſtanding the well-known Vigilance of the Citizens on theſe melancholy Occaſions, ſo great was the Blaze, occaſioned by the vaſt Quantities of Paper on Fire, that the whole Neighbourhood was in the utmoſt Danger of being reduced to Aſhes; which nothing leſs than the extraordinary Efforts of the Perſons preſent, could have prevented.——The Loſs of the unhappy Sufferers is great, but as yet uncertain, and the real Cauſe of this terrible Diſaſter not known.——The unavoidable Confuſion into which Mr. FARLEY's printing Materials are thrown, renders it impoſſible for him to publiſh the AMERICAN CHRONICLE till Thurſday next.

Friday Evening Capt. Rolles arrived here from Virginia, in 3 Days, with 130 Recruits, for his Majeſty's 60th, or Royal American Regiment.

This Week, the Privateer Brig General Monckton, Captain Sennott; and the Schooner Harlequin, Captain Wright, ſails on a Cruize againſt the Enemies of Great-Britain.

PHILADELPHIA, July 15.

Extract of a Letter from Liſbon, dated May 22, 1762.

"The Spaniards and Portugueſe are on the Point of a Rupture; but as yet there is no public Declaration of War, ſo that the Storm may blow over; but, be it as it will, we are not under the leaſt Fear of their coming near us.——It is ſtrongly reported that the Swedes and Dutch are to join the Engliſh; if ſo, it may be productive of an honourable Peace."

On Tueſday laſt arrived here the Schooner Betſey, Capt. Jackſon, from Providence, by whom we are informed, That on the 27th ult. one of there Privateers came in in three Days from the Havannah, who was 24 Hours under Admiral Pocock's Stern; during which Time the Captain learnt, that our Army had been ſafely landed; that they had taken three of the Enemy's Batteries; were in Poſſeſſion of the Ground round the Havannah, and of all the Hills that command the City and Moore Caſtle; that they had deſtroyed four Sail of Spaniſh Ships of the Line in the Harbour; and that they hoped to be Maſters of the Place in about twelve Days after he left the Fleet.

A French Privateer Brig, of 12 Guns, from the Miſſiſſippi, is taken, and carried into Providence, by the Captains Kemp and Roberts, in the Speedwell and Rover Privateers of that Place.——The Frenchman, it is ſaid, had taken two Prizes, and ſent them to the Havannah.——The Speedwell and Rover had alſo taken, and ſent in, a large Spaniſh Polacco Ship, from the Havannah.

The Captains Beale and Brickland, likewiſe in two Providence Privateers, had carried in there a large French Schooner, laden with White Sugar, from the Cape for Old France.

On Saturday laſt arrived here a Prize Sloop, loaded with Sugar and Coffee, taken by the Privateer New Grace, Capt. Taylor, of this Port.——He has likewiſe taken a French Schooner Privateer, of two Six-Pounders, ſix Two-Pounders and 17 Swivels, and ſent her to Providence. Alſo two Pettiaugers, with Sugar, &c.

ANNAPOLIS, July 22.

We mentioned laſt Week, the ſafe Arrival of all our Fleet: Since which we have received a Letter from one of the Commanders, wherein he mentions ſome Particulars, relating to their Paſſage, and the good Commodore, which we cannot ſo well expreſs, as in his own Words:

"Patuxent, July 12th, 1762.

"You will here receive an Account of the "Arrival of the Virginia and Maryland Fleets, "15 Sail for Virginia, and 21 for Maryland, not "a Ship having parted Company by the unparalleled Vigilance and Conduct of our Commodore, JOHN JARVIS, Eſq; of his Majeſty's "Ship Goſport, of 40 Guns. As to the Occurrences of our Paſſage, we ſailed from Spithead "the 6th of May, in Company with about 50 "Sail of Ships for the Weſt-Indies, under Convoy of his Majeſty's Ship the Danae, of 40 "Guns, Capt. Martin, and 7 Sail of Eaſt-Indiamen, under Convoy of the Superbe of 74 Guns, "Capt. Rowley, a worthy Son of the brave Admiral of that Name, and by Orders of the "Admiralty were to keep Company as long as "poſſible. We had a Report at Portſmouth, that "a French Squadron was waiting for us: This "we found true; for on the 11th of May, the "Goſport being ſomewhat aſtern, diſcovered 4 "Sail of Enemy's Ships ſtanding for us, and "made Signals; which the Commodore not ſeeing, for the Croud of Ships about him, Capt. "Jarvis deſired me to make Sail, and inform "him of it, which I did about 10 o'Clock that "Night. On the Morning of the 12th, Capt. "Rowley made the Signal to Chace, which was "immediately done by himſelf, the Goſport, and "Danae, till about 4 o'Clock in the Afternoon, "when he diſcovered the Enemy's Ships to be, "one of 74, one of 64, and two Frigates of 36 "Guns each. Capt. Rowley being then almoſt "within Reach, fired ſeveral Shot at the French "Commodore, to endeavour to bring him to "Action, and furl'd his Courſes to ſhew him he "had no Intention to run. The French crouding "all the Sail they could, our Men of War bore "away, and join'd the Fleet, and the Enemy on "this followed them. Capt. Rowley then order"ed one of the Indiamen to hoiſt the Lights, and "lead the Fleet, whilſt himſelf and the Men of "War lay too. The French apprehending by "this Manœuvre, that they ſhould be brought "to Action, whether they would or not, if they "continued to follow us, haul'd their Wind. "After it was dark, and they could not be ſeen, "our Men of War made Sail, and join'd the "Fleet, and we ſaw no more of the Enemy; and "thus, by this Fineſſe, the cowardly Dogs loſt "a fine Opportunity of making their Fortunes, "the 7 Indiamen being not worth leſs than One "Hundred Thouſand Pounds each, and the Goſport having that Sum in Specie on board, to "reimburſe the American Colonies their Expence "during the War; and here I wiſh I could congratulate the Province of Maryland on their "Share*. Captain Jarvis intends "ſailing from York in Virginia, with the Fleet, "the 20th of September. I cannot conclude with"out ſaying ſomething more in Praiſe of our "Commodore. It is doing him barely Juſtice "to ſay, he has acquired that happy Facility of "uniting in himſelf the polite Gentleman, the "eaſy Companion, and the brave and diligent "Officer; and I think we have every Thing to "expect, from his Behaviour, Homeward bound, "that our Wiſhes can ſuggeſt. He is going now "out on a Cruize, in which, if that Jilt Madam "Fortune, be as propitious to him, as my Wiſhes "are ſanguine, he will meet with a Galleon or "Two, to make Prize of: Certain it is, if ſhe "would once break her old Cuſtom, and beſtow "Riches on Merit, no one has a better Title to "her Favours: It is in ſhort ſufficient to ſay, "that he is every way worthy, and does Credit "to the Judgment of the brave, the humane, the "good, Admiral Sir Charles Saunders, whoſe Firſt "Lieutenant he was on the Expedition to Quebec, "and by him firſt promoted to a Command."

Laſt Thurſday Night, our Priſon was broke open, when James Blades, who was committed for Negro-ſtealing, and James Laphin, committed for Horſe-ſtealing, made their Eſcape.

Several Blind People are, and have been ſome Time, impatiently waiting in Town to ſee Dr. STORK, the famous Occuliſt, who is not yet come, but every Day expected.

Mr. GREEN,

IN Juſtice to the Public, you ought to retract your late Advertiſement of the ROCK-HALL FERRY, wherein it appears you have been ſeduced; for, doubtleſs, you have no Intereſt in being perſuaded that the Road that Way to Philadelphia, is 30 Miles ſhorter than by the Way of Kent-Iſland, which I take to be more than 25 Miles on the other Side of the Truth, the whole Diſtance between Annapolis and Rock-Hall, if even that be juſtly eſtimated. The Reckoning needed not to have been ſtretched from Annapolis to Philadelphia; all the Difference betwixt the two Roads will be found between Annapolis and George-Town, which I believe will be found in the Whole, by the new Scheme, to be as follows:

From Annapolis to Rock-Hall,	25
to Cheſter-Town,	12
to George-Town,	18
From Annapolis to Kent-Iſland,	12	55
to the Narrows,	7
to Queen's-Town,	7
to Dockery's,	7
to Townſide,	18
to George-Town,	8

the Difference here is but 4 Miles, and I believe I have made the moſt of it; however, let any candid Perſon examine it and conſider, whether it be worth any Man's while to carry his Horſe over 25 Miles of Water, to ſave 4 Miles Riding.

The Intention of the Rock-Hall Scheme, as I apprehended, was for the Benefit of the lower Part of Kent County only, and to facilitate the Conveyance of Merchandize, and Bulky Matters, between that and Annapolis. In this Light I was myſelf a Subſcriber to it, altho' I do not expect to be a Farthing better'd by it. But I cannot bear to ſee the travelling Stranger ſo groſsly deluded and amuſed with having ſaved 30 Miles out of 55. Beſides, the Advertiſement omits to tell us where this Rock-Hall ſtands, whether above or below Cheſter-Town, whether on Cheſter or Saſſafras, as if to elude Examination.

If you think fit to publiſh this, it will be a Teſtimony of your Candour and Ingenuity: In this, as you pleaſe; only firſt the Fact ought to be enquired into, for I would rather be deceived myſelf than deceive others. I am, SIR,

Your moſt humble Servant,

14th July, 1762. H. CALLISTER.

JUST IMPORTED from LONDON,

A NEAT and Faſhionable Aſſortment of Millinery; likewiſe Hoe's beſt Womens Shoes; and a Parcel of Toys, &c. to be Sold by the Subſcriber, at the Dwelling Houſe of Mr. William Clajon in Annapolis, for ready Caſh only.

JUST IMPORTED,

In the ELIZABETH, Capt. MORISON, from LONDON, and to be SOLD by the Subſcriber in BALTIMORE-TOWN,

A BEAUTIFUL Grey MARE, near ſixteen Hands high, whoſe Pedigree I am favour'd with from under his Royal Highneſs the Duke of Cumberland's own Hand. Extract of which is as follows:

The Pedigree of Young EBONY, 29th April, 1762.

She was got by H. R. H. the Duke of Cumberland's Grey Arabian, called Muley; her Dam, by Mr. Panton's old Crab; her Grand Dam, by the Devonſhire Childers; her Great Grand Dam, by Baſto; her Great, Great, Grand Dam, by the late Duke of Rutland's Black Barb, which King William gave his Grace out of the famous Maſſey Mare. She was Bred by his Royal Highneſs, and is Eight Years old this Graſs, and no more. I have it further atteſted by Mr. Barnard Smith, Stud Groom to his Royal Highneſs, that the Grey Arabian Horſe, called Muley, is the Sire of Lord Portmore's Bay Mare, Madam, which won the Mare Plate at Aſcot Heath, in 1760: She won it again in 1761, and the aged Plate at Odiham, the ſame Seaſon.——Alſo, Mr. Smith aſſerts, that This Mare EBONY, was covered by H. R. H. the Duke of Cmberland's Bay Horſe Cato, on the 13th April, 1762. Cato was got by Old Regulus, Son of the Godolphin Arabian, out of Mr. Bow's Partiner Mare, and won as follows: He won the King's Plate at Newcaſtle, for 5 Years old Horſes, in 1753: When 6 Years old, he won the following King's Plates, carrying 12 Stone, at Guildford, Saliſbury, Canterbury, Wincheſter, and Lewis.

In the Year 1755, Cato won the aged Plate at Aſcot Heath, where he beat Crab, and the famous Little Driver.

At New-Market, Cato beat Crab a ſingle 4 Mile Match. The October following, Cato gave Crab 6 Pounds.

In 1756, Cato won the 50 l. Plate at New-Market, for aged Horſes.

In 1759, Cato beat Lord Oxford's Pickle, a 4 Mile Match, over New-Market.

In 1760, Cato beat Lord Gower's Invalid, a 4 Mile Match, over New-Market.

The October following, Cato beat Mr. Shafto's Alcides, a 4 Mile Match, over New-Market.

The Groom who had the Care of this Mare, doubts not her being with Foal by this Horſe.

To prevent Trouble to Gentlemen who live at a Diſtance, or out of the Province, I think proper to inform them, that her firſt Coſt was 200 Guineas, and thoſe who would not chooſe to give a reaſonable Advance on that Sum, cannot deal with

Their moſt humble Servant,

Nottingham, on Patuxent, 8th July, 1762.

THE Subscriber having lately received positive Instructions from Messieurs SHORTRIDGE, GORDON, and Company, of Glasgow, his Employers, to call in all the Debts due to them in this Province, either for Dealings with Mr. Henry Tubman at Benedict, or the Subscriber at Nottingham, gives this Public Notice, that all concerned may speedily come in, and give such Satisfaction as is in their Power. As the Subscriber intends to Great-Britain, after staying a reasonable Time for the Settlement of his Affairs in this Province, he hopes that every one who hath Dealings unsettled with him, either for himself or his said Employers, and are unable to make immediate Payment, will, for their own Sakes, come and settle with the Subscriber, as it may be a Means of preventing Disputes, that otherwise may hereafter rise in settling these old Dealings with his Successor, in the Management of the said Gentlemens Affairs. Altho' I am strongly enjoined to make a very considerable Remittance out of Debts by this Summer Shipping, yet I am willing to indulge such of my Customers as are really unable to pay this Summer, with a little longer Time, provided they will come and settle their Accounts, and give Security, if required: And I flatter myself, that they will all prefer such easy Terms to Suits at Law, which will certainly be the Consequence of their standing off.

THOMAS CAMPBELL.

Calvert County, July 6th, 1762.

THE Subscriber intending for London this Summer, all Persons having legal Demands against him, are desired to bring the same in, and receive Payment. And all Persons any ways Indebted to the Subscriber (particularly those Indebted on open Accounts) are requested to pay off, or otherwise settle the same without Delay; which will prevent Trouble, and oblige

Their humble Servant,
